Hogan Technology Receives Top Industry Award

Technology Assurance Group Awards Leading Technology Provider at their 19th Annual TAG Convention

EASTHAMPTON, Ma— DATE — Hogan Technology, a leading managed technology services provider, announced today that the company received Technology Assurance Group's top award at the 19th Annual TAG Convention held in Orlando, FL. Technology Assurance Group (TAG), an international organization of independently owned managed technology services providers in the United States and Canada, selected Hogan Technology as the winner of the TAG Champion Award. Hogan Technology accepted the award at the prestigious awards ceremony attended by the dominant forces of managed technology services providers, including TAG's Member companies and leading technology manufacturers.

The award is based on the company's ability to drive their fellow TAG Members' growth and advancement. Hogan Technology offers an array of IT networking, voice, and video solutions all designed to increase their customers' profitability and productivity. The "TAG Champion Award" award was accepted by Sean Hogan, President of Hogan Technology. "Our company's goal is to always strive to be on the leading edge of technology," said Mr. Hogan. "Through TAG we learn best business practices for the betterment of the customers we serve. We believe in giving back to the Members that have helped us along the way. We're proud to have won this award among such a sophisticated group of managed technology services providers."

“Hogan Technology continues to stand out as an exceptional TAG Member. It was no surprise that they received this award,” commented Brian Suerth, President of TAG. “They are committed to continually educating their clientele on the latest advancements in technology. They have shared what they learned with their peers. As a result, they have helped raise the bar of customer service and satisfaction of our industry as a whole. This is why they deserve to be recognized as the best provider in our industry.”

Hogan Technology is committed to providing exceptional value through managed services that assures a fixed cost for their customers. Their highly trained and motivated professionals constantly strive to offer proactive services that maximize the profits, productivity, and competitive advantages of those customers.
